NAÏM ON MELBOURNE

South Brisbane's Naim on Melbourne serves up mouth-watering Middle Eastern dishes in a modern, Moorish-inspired interior (courtesy of Melbourne's The Stella Collective) that honours the beauty of Syrian architecture. Complete with arched doorways, geometric tiling, rattan backrests and cascading greenery, it's a dining oasis, from starters to finish. @naimonmelbourne

Lenny 3206 in Melbourne's Albert Park dishes up more style than your everyday café. Transforming heritage to haute, local firm Golden designed the eatery's smart pastel shades, hardy furnishings and inviting textiles, alongside wavy curvise motifs reflecting the brand and region. Lenny's breakfast and lunch menu are also genius, featuring plates like duck and waffle, and confit salmon with soba noodles.
