Ten Minutes by Tractor's wallaby tartare with Flinders mussels, roast kelp and beach greens

Main Ridge, Vic	Brisbane, Qld		Melbourne, Vic	Sydney, NSW
TEN MINUTES BY TRACTOR	YOKO DINING		NINE YARDS	AUVERS CAFÉ
After being devastated by a fire in 2018, the renowned fine-dining establishment on the Mornington Peninsula reopens this month. Chef Adam Sanderson (ex The Fat Duck and Noma) is at the helm with the region's fresh produce squarely in his sights.	Jonathan Barthelmess opened Greca on Brisbane's Howard Smith Wharves in 2018 and now he's launched this new Japanese izakaya and bar right next door. Sustainable seafood and Wagyu are at the heart of the menu.	Food	Chef Lydia Hean (ex Plain Sailing) is in charge of the kitchen at this new café serving dishes such as French toast with Anzac biscuit and Milo, and spiced crab with finger lime and salt bush.	Matcha pancakes, pizza bagels and tiramisu French toast are just a few examples of the dishes you can expect at this all-day French-inspired café, named after the village where Van Gogh lived and painted.
Drops from the onsite winery feature on the menu with other Australian and international labels.	There's an extensive range of sakes and wines, plus a tightly edited selection of whiskies.	Drinks	Locally roasted coffee from Niccolo and single origins, alongside a range of milkshakes and smoothies.	Cocktails customised for your tastebuds are on the menu, plus a good selection of coffees, beers and wines.
The contemporary dining room overlooks the vineyards by day and transforms into an intimate space with a fireplace by night.	Bright and airy two-storey space, offering uninterrupted water views.	Space	Melbourne design firm Golden is behind the swanky interiors replete with natural materials and a neutral colour palette.	A Gillie and Marc artwork spans an entire wall, giving the café an eclectic and fun vibe.
In the Mornington Peninsula region, about an hour's drive south of Melbourne.	Smack-bang in the middle of the city's happening Howard Smith Wharves precinct.	Location	About 15 minutes drive from the Melbourne CBD.	Right next to Chinatown, in the Darling Square precinct.
